PROFILE

Graphic and Visual Communication Designer with over four years of experience creating strategic, modern design systems for digital first and fintech brands. Advanced in Canva, Figma, and CorelDRAW, with a strong record of producing on brand social media, email, and blog content that strengthens brand identity and drives engagement. I enjoy translating marketing objectives into visuals that are clear, consistent, and easy for audiences to connect with. I am comfortable managing multiple projects at once, working independently, and collaborating closely with product and marketing teams to keep every asset aligned with a brand's voice and goals.

CORE SKILLS

Design & Tools: Canva (Advanced), Figma, CorelDRAW, Pixellab, Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator (working knowledge), CapCut, Flow, ChatGPT Image, Gemini, Grok

Design Disciplines: Brand identity and brand guidelines, social media design, email and newsletter design, blog and landing page visuals, print and editorial layout, motion flyers and short form video

Strengths: Visual storytelling, typography and layout, brand consistency, campaign asset development, file and asset organization, independent project ownership, cross functional collaboration

Working Style: Reliable with deadlines, comfortable receiving and applying feedback quickly, organized in how I name and store files so teammates can find what they need, and proactive about suggesting visual improvements rather than waiting to be asked

EXPERIENCE

Graphic Designer | Dandy Communications LTD

Nov 2024 – Jun 2026

- Social media content consistency: Redesigned the templates used for client and in house social media posts, which cut design production time by 30% and allowed the team to publish 20% more content per month.
- Campaign asset delivery: Built a reusable system of print and digital templates for brochures, adverts, and event materials, reducing average turnaround time from 5 days to 2 days per request.
- Brand asset organization: Restructured the shared brand and design asset library, cutting the time teammates spent searching for files by roughly 40% and reducing duplicate or outdated assets.
- Multi platform campaign adaptation: Adapted single campaign concepts into formats for 5+ platforms, including Instagram, LinkedIn, Facebook, and email, keeping every version aligned with brand guidelines.
- Engagement driven design: Reviewed monthly campaign performance with the content team and refined visual direction based on the data, contributing to a 25% increase in average post engagement over six months.

Graphic Designer | Al-Rich Construction Company

Feb 2022 – Aug 2024

- Client facing collateral: Designed company profiles, project brochures, and signage for 10+ active projects, giving the sales team consistent, professional materials for client meetings and site visits.
- Pitch and proposal support: Developed presentation decks and proposal documents for client pitches, supporting a business development process that helped secure new project contracts.
- Internal and external communication: Translated project updates and company announcements into visual content, improving how clearly milestones were communicated to both staff and external stakeholders.
- Brand consistency: Audited and standardized brand application across more than 15 printed and digital touchpoints, from business cards to large format site signage, eliminating inconsistent logo and color usage.
- Visual identity rollout: Led the rollout of a refreshed visual identity across the company's printed and digital materials, completed on schedule ahead of a major company rebranding milestone.

SELECTED INDEPENDENT PROJECTS

Vaultix, Digital Banking Brand Identity: Designed a full brand identity system for a concept digital banking platform, including logo, brand guidelines, card design, and app mockups, built to communicate trust and financial confidence.

Own Your Future, Investment Awareness Campaign: Created a fintech focused social media campaign, including an Instagram grid, stories, and promotional assets, aimed at encouraging young professionals to engage with investment and financial literacy content.

Fintech Rebrand Concept: Led a before and after rebrand study for a fintech identity, refreshing the logo, UI mockups, and website hero section to show how typography, color, and layout improvements can modernize a brand.
